Refreshments will be available at Halton Gill by courtesy of the local residents.

Would all competitors and spectators please observe the country code and give due consideration to local residents and other road users.

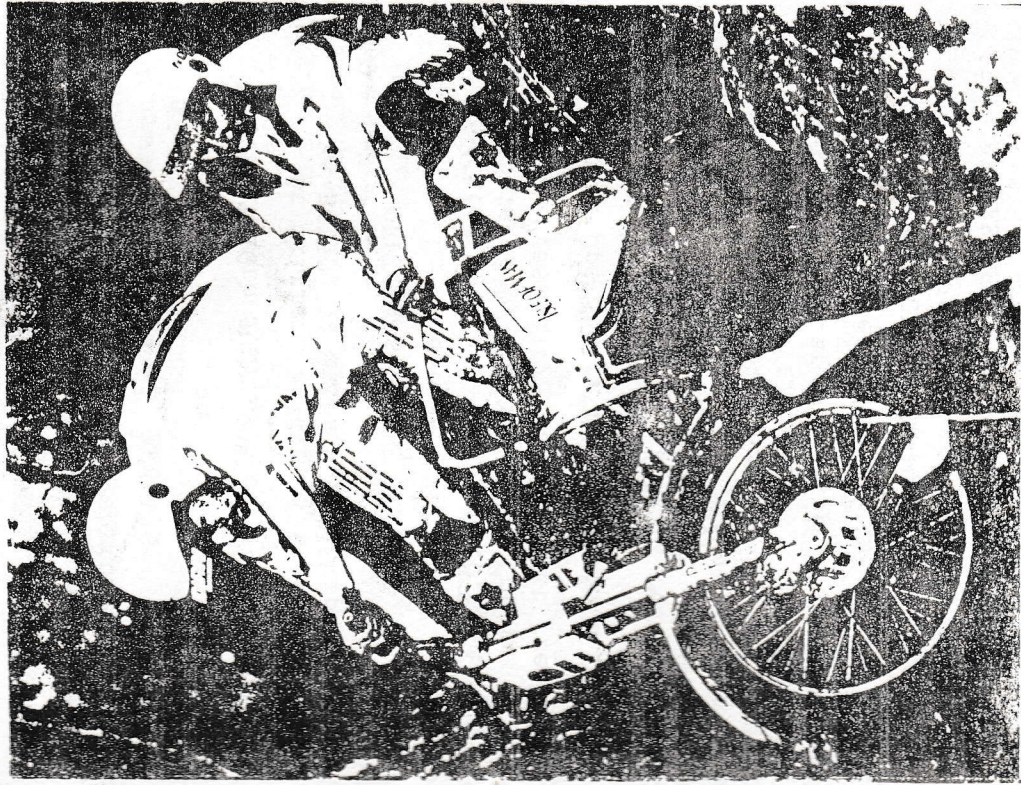

Under no circumstances may any person other than official competitors follow the route over private land in cars or on motorcycles.

Please note the route from Halton Gill - Raisgill, Yockenthwaite - Stake Pass and Moored is all private land which prohibits the use of vehicles to the public.

On behalf of the Bradford & District Motor Club may I offer a special thank you to all the observers and officials. To run this event we require over 80 officials and appreciate many of you have travelled a long way to help today. Many have supported us for a number of years and I hope will continue to do so. New volunteers are always welcome and I trust will be forthcoming so the Allan Jefferies Trophy Trial may remain the outstanding event it is today.
